

HISTORY OF THE AWARDS

The Beginning...

Lions Children of Courage Awards were first initiated in 1983 in Western Australia by the then District Governor, Joe Mason.

The Purpose...

To recognise a very special group of Young Western Australians and their families. There were many awards that recognised the achievements of young people, however, children with "special needs" were not catered for. These awards were especially designed to recognise the courage and bravery shown by these children every day.

It has since grown in numbers and is well supported by our local communities.
